

A close-up photograph of a person's hands engaged in gardening. In the foreground, a bright green watering can is positioned on the left. To its right, a white plastic crate holds various gardening tools, including a green-handled trowel and a wooden-handled tool. In the background, a person's hands are visible, one holding a small potted plant with yellow flowers and the other using a trowel to work with soil in a terracotta pot. The scene is set outdoors in a garden with blurred greenery in the background.

If you have spare time and are a keen gardener. We would love you to come and share your talents with us at Firth Primary School. Please let the office know if you are able to help us out with some gardening or planting.
